

A NEMCON XXXI SPECIAL EVENT

Friday March 9, 2011 8:00 P.M. ~
“An Evening with Peter Samelson”

The first 60 people to register for NEMCON by 2/12/2011 and staying Friday night at the Crowne Plaza Hotel are invited to attend a special Friday night performance by Peter Samelson.

Peter Samelson insists that he doesn't do magic; he only helps people to see it. He is an illusionist/entertainer/philosopher, blending simplicity and sophistication as he provokes thought and inspires wonder.

Peter performs and designs for television, film and theater. Christened “the soft spoken conceptualist of sorcery” by the New York Times, he has performed atop the Great Wall of China, for Mexican peasants and Grand Prix race car drivers, Princess Stephanie of Monaco, the jet-set of Paris and the fishermen mending their nets on the beaches of Cartagena. He starred in three critically acclaimed one-man, Off-Broadway shows; The Magician, PaperWork, and Radnevsky's Real Magic, and was featured in the PBS Special, The Art of Magic.

Peter co-produces Monday Night Magic and Magical Nights (Sundays at Loews Regency) in New York. He headlines both on a regular basis.
